

3. For the repair or expenses of the church, or churchyard, or of tombs, or for
the maintenance of services;

a. 'The Bell Field' (From the Stillington Award of 1767, page 67)

Clerk. We also order, award, set out, and allot to the said Stephen Croft, William Stainforth, and Roger Bellwood and their heirs and assigns in trust for the clerk of Stillington for the time being for ever, Two acres, Two roods, and Ten perches, on the same field, part of which same allotment is in lieu of one Balk called North Skeuf Balk, for finding blee Strings, Bawdries, and other necessities about the bells in the church of Stillington aforesaid.

(Known locally as the Bell Field)

